BUSINESS NOTES AND TRADE NEWS

Slump in Cotton Fails to Dip Gray Goods Market-Hardware Advances.

iness was described as fair by one of the foremost commission houses. It also acted to strengthen the bellef in certain circles that cotton goods quotations will trend downward. This opinion, however, is fallacious, according to prominent market factors, who declared that advances in the cloth market have not kept pace with the rises in raw cotton. Holders continued to quote 8% cents for the standard 38½-inch, 64-60 print cloths, and 2% cents for the 68-72s. Asking prices for the 72-76s remained at 11½ cents. There appeared to be less haggling over prices, which is an indication that buyers are becoming reconciled to the new higher prices.
